

AJAY VINZÉ, PH.D.
Earl and Gladys Davis Distinguished Professor of Business
Associate Dean International Programs
& Associate Vice Provost Graduate Education
Department of Information Systems
W. P. Carey School of Business
Arizona State University
Tempe, Arizona 85287-4606

Ajay Vinzé is the Earl and Gladys Davis Distinguished Professor of Business and the Associate Dean for International Programs at the W. P. Carey School of Business, Arizona State University (ASU). He is also the Associate Vice Provost for the Graduate College at ASU. Dr. Vinzé has previously served as the Founder and inaugural director of the Center for Advancing Business through Information Technology (CABIT) and was the Director for the Executive MBA program. He received his Ph.D. in Management Information Systems from the University of Arizona, Tucson in 1988.

Professor Vinze's research is known for technology innovation and organizational relevance and has focused on topics including data analytics; emergency preparedness and response; disruptive innovation; economic value of ICT investments; and, collaborative computing. His publications have appeared in most leading scholarly (Information System) journals including Information Systems Research, MIS Quarterly, Decision Sciences and various IEEE and ACM Transactions. Professor Vinze's has taught extensively in the US and internationally. In 2012, he was recognized at Arizona State University with a Faculty Excellence Award.

Dr. Vinzé regularly interfaces with organizations in the US and internationally in Argentina, Australia, Austria, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Chile, Colombia, Croatia, Czech Republic, India, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, Philippines, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Slovakia, Slovenia, UAE, Vietnam and Trinidad & Tobago. He can be contacted at Ajay.Vinze@asu.edu.